

SAT. MAY 22
1948

LOCAL INSTRUMENT ASSOCIATION HAS BANQUET LAST NIGHT

Present and retiring officials of the Sarnia Section, Instrument Society of America, were present at the annual banquet held in the Polymer Cafeteria last night. Those shown are, front, from left to right, J. A. Almey (Dow), new treasurer; W. J. Graeb, (Imp. Oil) incoming president; H. F. Moore, speaker of the evening and engineer in charge of the instrument department, Standard Oil Development Co. of New Jersey, and R. Langler (Dow Chemical), retiring treasurer. Back row, left to right, K. Goldring (Polymer), incoming vice-president; D. S. Simmons (Imp. Oil), honorary president; Elder (Imp. Oil), retiring president and incoming secretary; I. Cole (Dow Chemical), retiring vice-president, and R. K. Chamland (Polymer), retiring secretary.